

Wraysbury take the 200m open S20 from Secklow and Amathus.

Wraysbury near clean sweep

British National Championships

One of the benefits of dragon boat racing is that disabled paddlers can take part with everybody else, no special categories. Once in the boat there are often no signs to distinguish them from other competitors. However, there needs to be some thought given to their needs off the water at Holme Pierrepont. In particular, some people need to be Wraysbury women take their S14 200m class.

Burner Dragons, Power Dragons and Raging Royals took part in a series of junior races.

Amathus win the mixed S20 title by a head from Wraysbury.